Shamrock Challenge

1. Savannah, Georgia
2. 24 people

News Graph

1. 5
2. 1940

News Review

1. D  3. A  5. C

Online Skill Builders

Reading Roles

Responses will vary.

An American Hero

- In 1885, Alice Paul was born in New Jersey. Growing up, she saw that women did not have the same rights as men.
- In 1913, Paul led a parade in Washington, D.C. Thousands of women marched to demand suffrage.
- In 1917, Paul led a big protest outside the White House.
- In 1920, the 19th Amendment was approved. It gave women in the U.S. the right to vote.

Be a Quiz Whiz!

1. D  6. C
2. B  7. A
3. C  8. B
5. B  10. D

Close-Reading Questions:

A Game Changed My Life

1. In Nigeria, a violent group was trying to take over the government. Deadly attacks were common. Tani’s family lived in fear. They escaped to find a safe place to live.
2. Playing chess helped Tani’s story make the news. When people around the world learned about his story, they donated more than $200,000 to help his family. One person even paid for a year’s rent on an apartment.
3. Refugees are forced to leave their country in order to escape danger. They leave behind their homes and most of their belongings. Immigrants choose to leave their homes. Unlike refugees, they usually have time to pack their belongings.

A Hero For Women

1. When Paul was growing up, her parents taught her that all people were equal. But she saw that women did not have the same rights as men. Paul also attended meetings with her mother where women talked about how to win the right to vote.
2. Paul gave speeches and wrote to lawmakers. She also led a parade in Washington, D.C., where thousands of women marched to demand suffrage. Paul also led a big protest outside the White House.
3. Paul was courageous because she continued to fight for equality even when she faced challenges. For example, after quietly protesting outside the White House, Paul was arrested and imprisoned in a dirty jail cell for weeks.